Church Family News

Welcome Richard Bromley!

Revd Richard Bromley, Mission Director of ICS, is joining us on Sunday 14th January together with his wife Denise. Richard will be preaching at our morning service, having facilitated an away-day with the church council on the Saturday. ICS is an evangelical Anglican mission agency to English-speakers of any nationality and background, who live, study, work or holiday abroad, and is also patron to our church (responsible for the process of recruiting each chaplain).

Messy Church

Our next Messy Church event is happening at 3pm on Saturday 20th January. We are happy to announce that we have found a wonderful venue, meeting at 'De Werf' attached to the Kruispunt Church, right at the heart of Voorschoten town centre, just opposite Albert Heijn. This is a great informal event for all the family with games, crafts, cake, and a short Bible story in English and Dutch. For more information contact Adam: adam@stjames.nl. All are welcome!

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

As an expression of our unity in Christ, the churches in Voorschoten join together once a year for a combined ecumenical service. This time it is our turn to host, and so we will be welcoming friends from the Protestant and Roman Catholic congregations to St James on Sunday 28th January at 10.30am. The service will be in Dutch and English and led by Bert Boter, Dirk Gudde and Ruan, who will also be preaching.

Fellowship Cross

The Fellowship Cross is now with Munro & Mieke Mackay. This is a small wooden cross that resides with different congregation members every month or so as a tangible reminder of our fellowship together in Christ.
